Remembering Pearl Harbor

“On Sunday morning, December 7, 1941, the American Army and Navy base in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii was attacked by the Imperial Japanese Navy. The attack came as a surprise to the American Army and Navy and led to great losses of life and equipment. More than 2000 American citizens were killed and more than 1000 were injured” (<http://www.timeanddate.com/holidays/us/pearl-harbor-remembrance-day>). Although this event marked a terrible tragedy in American History, it also marked the beginning of the end of World War II. We remember the lives lost that day and continue to thank our service men and women for risking their lives for our freedom. A great “thank you” to those of you who have served our country. You will never be forgotten.
